

NRHC Committed to Strengthening Communities

Washington, D.C. (June 5, 2020) – The National Rental Home Council (NRHC), the trade association for the single-family rental home industry, is committed to supporting racial equality and justice. NRHC members own homes and provide services in communities across our country, and share a common goal of strengthening neighborhoods, embracing our differences, and making our country the best it can be.

We believe it is absolutely necessary to provide safe, affordable housing without discrimination against any person because of their ethnicity, gender, color, religion, or any other characteristic protected by law. We must continue to value our differences, learn from our neighbors, and rise above intolerance. In doing so, we will highlight our strength and diversity, and the freedoms that make us unique as a country.

About the National Rental Home Council

The National Rental Home Council (NRHC) is a non-partisan organization dedicated to advocating on behalf of the 16 million home single-family rental industry on legislative, regulatory and capital market matters. Visit the NRHC's website, www.rentalhomecouncil.org, follow the NRHC on Twitter at @NRHCouncil and like NRHC on Facebook. To learn more about membership, email info@rentalhomecouncil.org.

###