

America’s Leading Rental Home Providers Congratulate Marcia Fudge on Confirmation as Secretary of Housing and Urban Development

Washington, D.C. (March 10, 2021) – The National Rental Home Council (NRHC) and its members, representing America’s single-family rental home industry, congratulate Marcia Fudge on her confirmation as U.S. Secretary of Housing and Urban Development.

“NRHC and its members congratulate Secretary Fudge and look forward to working with her to support the rental home market and the millions of Americans who count on it every day to provide quality, affordable homes for their families,” said David Howard, executive director of NRHC. “As we mark one year since the start of the COVID-19 pandemic, single-family rental home owners continue to struggle from the economic crisis. We are encouraged by Secretary Fudge’s commitment to providing comprehensive rental assistance and welcome policies from the Department of Housing and Urban Development that support rental property owners during these difficult times.”

“Accounting for more than half of the rental housing in the United States, single-family rental homes play a vital role in ensuring Americans have a multitude of flexible and financially suitable options in the nation’s overall housing market. As they seek to address the challenges facing that market – in particular, housing affordability – Secretary Fudge and the Biden-Harris administration must ensure that single-family rental homes are part of the solution.”

About NRHC

The National Rental Home Council (NRHC) is the nonprofit trade association representing the single-family rental home industry. NRHC members provide families and individuals with access to high-quality, single-family rental homes that contribute to the vitality and vibrancy of neighborhoods and communities. For more information on NRHC or the single-family rental home industry visit www.rentalhomecouncil.org

###

Contact: David Howard, dhoward@rentalhomecouncil.org